

CZAR IS GETTING IT ALL ONE WAY. UNION RIOTERS ARE LAID LOW.

Detachments of Guards Are Doing Loyal Duty—Telegraph Communication Restored as Often as Interrupted—Naval Commander Safe.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 1.—The general telegraph office of St. Petersburg and surrounding buildings were occupied by detachments of guards, just before midnight tonight. The authorities evidently fear a general attempt to cut communication between the capital and the interior.

SHUSHA SITUATION SERIOUS. Aug. 1.—The situation at Shusha again is serious. Telegraphic communication with Shusha has been repeatedly interrupted.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 2, 12:15 a. m.—St. Petersburg is anxiously awaiting the news of the outcome of yesterday's battle between the mutineers and the government forces at Sveaborg. No definite information has been received here, owing to the damage done to the land telegraph wires. The advice received by the government by wireless telegraphy have not been divulged.

The most importance is attached to the conduct of the fleet. According to semi-official intimations, the crews of these vessels are still under the control of their officers, but private advice says that a portion of the crews have been confined below decks for fear of mutiny.

FOUR SHIPS ROAMING. There was a rumor in circulation here tonight that four of the ships of the Baltic squadron were in complete mutiny and roaming at large in the Gulf of Finland, and that the Commandant at Cronstadt had been notified to be prepared for an attack by the vessels.

It is worthy of note that a dispatch to an official agency from Helsinki announcing the arrival of the fleet at Sveaborg and the fact that it opened fire does not mention what it fired against.

Vice-Admiral Birtleff presumably has gone to Helsinki to assume personal command of the fleet, as it now develops that Grand Duke Alexis Michailovitch, the Emperor's brother, is not with the fleet as previously reported, but at Gatchina, the Emperor Dowager's mansion.

ANXIETY ABOUT CRONSTADT. The most intense anxiety still prevails with regard to a possible uprising at Cronstadt and the general spread of the revolt through the entire naval establishment. A personal visit by a correspondent of the Associated Press to Cronstadt shows that the authorities there received timely warning of the events at Sveaborg, and tipped a possible revolt in the bud. They had the situation well in hand Tuesday night, and quietly placed detachments of infantry at the doors of the marine barracks and removed the cartridges from the racks in the buildings.

FIFTEEN HUNDRED PRISONERS. Yesterday morning, the 1500 sailors composing the Seventh Squadron, quartered at Cronstadt, whose loyalty had been distrusted, found themselves prisoners. The correspondent saw them looking out of the windows of their barracks, unable to communicate with the outside.

The streets of Cronstadt are swarming with troops of the loyal guard regiments, and the newly-arrived men of the Twenty-fourth Division, who serve to overawe the disaffected elements.

The commandant at Cronstadt ordered the confiscation of newspapers from St. Petersburg in order to prevent the news of the outbreak at Sveaborg from reaching the islanders. This measure was fairly successful.

AGITATORS DISPERSED. A group of agitators who went over to Cronstadt in the same boat with the correspondent of the Associated Press attempted to hold meetings and communicate news of the Sveaborg happenings. They were dispersed, however, and fled before the leveled rifles of the soldiers.

The officers of the Navy Department at Cronstadt are besieged by the wives and relatives of officers on board the ships at Helsinki, who are frantic over the reports that the crews had arisen and killed their superiors.

As the correspondent was crossing from Cronstadt to Cranienbaum, he saw the Imperial yacht, Polestar, lying with steam up, at the pier below the Imperial residence at Peterhof.

EXCITEMENT AT CRONSTADT. The news of the revolt here caused the greatest excitement at Cronstadt, especially in view of the report that a mutiny of the crews of warships was proceeding at Cronstadt, and that the revolutionists were working hard to persuade the troops here to mutiny and refused to fire on the warships. Precautions were hastily taken by the authorities at Cronstadt.

The breach blocks of the guns on board some of the warships were removed, while detachments of troops were sent on board other ships.

TROOPS BY RAIL. The damage to the branch line to Viborg has been repaired, and reinforcements of troops are arriving here.

In response to the call for a general strike, only the employees of private factories have gone out.

COSSACKS POCKET MANIFESTO. Copies of the Viborg outlawed Parliamentary manifesto are being distributed among the Cossacks, who quietly put them in their pockets.

A naval squadron, including the battleship Slava, is reported to have sailed from Rerval this morning for Sveaborg.

BUILDINGS AND CASUALTIES. The telegraph building here has been ruined, and the barracks and cathedral have been badly damaged by the fire of the 11-inch guns. The numbers of the wounded and killed have probably been overestimated.

GUARDS FOR MAIL CARS. [BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.] WARSAW, Aug. 1.—On account of the frequent robberies of mail cars, the Governor-General has ordered that all such cars shall hereafter be guarded by trained soldiers. Strangers are not allowed to enter them.

The typesetting establishment of certain revolutionary organizations has been discovered, and 12,000 copies of the Viborg manifesto were confiscated.

At the meeting of workmen held in Helsinki it was resolved to declare a general strike for increased pay from day to day for as long as such action proves necessary.

GARRISONS MUTINY ON GETTING NEWS.

Kick-out of Parliament Gives the Czar Opportunity to Test Loyalty of the Troops—Murder By Black Hundred Assassins.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 1.—When the Czar became known at Desplav, the House of Parliament had been dissolved, the entire garrison mutinied. The soldiers killed their commander and eight officers, and took the local administration into their own hands. SERIOUS SAMARA OUTBREAKS.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 1.—According to private advices received here, serious military outbreaks have occurred in the provinces of the government of Samara.

BIRLEFF ON SCHOOLSHIP. At the Ministry of Marine, the report that Admiral Birtleff had gone to Helsinki was confirmed. He sailed on the schoolship Asia.

As the report that no troops have been sent to Finland from Russia proper, Gen. Salza, the commander of the military forces in Finland, has been authorized to draw on all the garrisons in Finland, if necessary. All told, there are about 40,000 Russian troops in the Grand Duchy.

WAITING ON THE CZAR. [BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.] ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 1, 4 a. m.—"All now depends upon the Emperor," was the answer given out by Count Heydon, last night, to a question by the Associated Press as to whether he, Prince Nicholas Lyoff and Alexander

Guchoff were already members of the Stolypin Cabinet.

"All negotiations with Premier Stolypin has been satisfactorily concluded," said the Count. He agreed to our programme, and presented our names to the Emperor, with the recommendation that the programme be accepted. If His Majesty is willing to accept this programme, we will enter the ministry."

DEPUTY ASSASSINATED. The report of the murder of M. Herzenstein, a former member of the outlawed Parliament, which he was a prominent leader of the Constitutional Democrats, is confirmed. It turns out that he was assassinated at his country home near Terioki, Finland, by men in the pay of the Black Hundred organization.

M. Herzenstein was walking along the seashore with his wife and daughter when several shots were fired at him from an unoccupied building.

M. Herzenstein was hit twice, and fell dead. His daughter was wounded in the hand. The murderers escaped.

A remarkable fact is that three hours prior to the murder, a telephone message was received at a newspaper office from Moscow asking for news of M. Herzenstein, and saying that he had been assassinated.

M. Herzenstein was of Jewish descent, and very wealthy. His attacks on the Ministry of Finance in the lower house of Parliament attracted widespread attention. He supported the Constitutional Democratic scheme for land expropriation. His family had renounced the Jewish faith and became orthodox Russians several generations ago. He occupied a prominent place in Moscow society, and was a popular idol among the peasants.

Sheriff's Posse Shoots at Michigan Trammers.

Attempt to Molest Non-Union Men Is Fatal.

Striker Is Killed and Two Are Fatally Injured.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

Houghton (Mich.) Aug. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] As a result of a ten-minute battle last night between the Sheriff's posse and striking union trammers of the Michigan mine at Rockland, Ontario county, Louis Ojald, a striker, is dead, a second striker is dying of a shot through the stomach, and a third is seriously and perhaps fatally injured.

Several wounded men are supposed to be concealed by friends. Ninety men are under arrest for participating in the riot.

The trammers struck for higher wages and attempted to prevent the Sheriff's posse from working. The latter asked for and were given protection by Sheriff Walter Macfarlane and a well-armed posse, the Sheriff notifying the strikers that his posse would shoot to kill if interfered with. The battle was brought on by a volley of stones from the strikers and was answered with lead.

The striking miners and trammers at the Quincy mine have refused positively the company's offer to compromise and the mine and mill are idle, throwing out 1700 men.

CALHOUN WOULD ARBITRATE. [BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.] SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railroads, today telegraphed Richard Cornelius, president of the Carriers' Union, recommending that the electrical workers return to work at once and that when he comes to this city from New York he will arbitrate the difficulty.

Calhoun is a member of the arbitration board, a member of the Electrical Workers' Union being another, while the third is a representative of the strikers.

President Worthington says his union will not consider the arbitration proposal, declaring that the strike is progressing to the satisfaction of the union. There is no material change in the situation.

Thorndyke, Millard of the United Railroads declares that fifty men are now working on McAllister street, but that the strike will not seriously impede the way to persuade them to leave the construction. He further says that in a day or two there will be a number of strikers at work on the Sutter street line, which was abandoned by the strikers. He is confident that the strike will not seriously impede the work in hand for any considerable period and is sure that it will not.

Mullaly, who denied that Fitch, an employee of the company, had any authority to appear before the construction workers, and to suggest terms to them for any settlement of the strike. He states emphatically that no unauthorized overtures have been made.

BOX MAKERS GET INCREASE. [BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.] SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—Through the decision of three box-manufacturing companies to pay their men the increased wages recently demanded, the threatened strike of the box makers was averted yesterday. The men, who were working on a strike line, with an increase of 20 per cent. in their daily pay.

FREIGHT HANDLERS APPEARED. The Southern Pacific Company yesterday granted the demand of the freight handlers in the yards at Oakland who went on strike last week for more pay, but returned to work after the company had agreed to consider their wishes. The company agreed that men employed for more than sixty days would be paid 25 cents an hour, and men employed less than sixty days would be paid 20 cents an hour.

NEW RATE FOR WAITERS. The new scale of wages and conditions decided on by the Cooks and Waiters' Union and adopted by the San Francisco Labor Council is now before the National Labor Council for ratification. Should the schedule be indorsed, a flat scale of wages will go into effect in all local cafes and restaurants. Under the new schedule the waiters are to receive $2 a day for ten hours' work.

SUIT SHOWS RANK TREATMENT. Richard S. Bird Recites in His Complaint Bill Hurd Time He Had in Porto Rico.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Underlying the complaint in the suit for $100,000 damages brought by Richard S. Bird, a lawyer of this city, against present and former officials of the Island of Porto Rico, are charges that while editor of the San Juan News he was practically abandoned by the United States government; that his printing plant was confiscated, and that representations were made to him that led him to believe his life was in danger.

VALET AND MAID IMPOSTERS. Traveled About With Count Wittgenstein's Marriage Certificate and Deceased Tradesman.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.] CHERBOURG, Aug. 1.—Extensive frauds perpetrated upon tradesmen here have led to the arrest of a man and a woman who were formerly in the service of Count Wittgenstein as valet and parlor maid. Count Wittgenstein is said to be at present in the United States. The prisoners had in their possession the Count's marriage certificate. They had recently traveled on board the steamship Kaiserin Augusta Victoria. They registered in hotels here as Count and Countess Wittgenstein.

SHIPBUILDING PLANT REPORT. NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The final report of former United States Senator James Smith, Jr., as receiver of the United States Shipbuilding Company was filed in the United States Circuit Court at Trenton today. The report shows that the receiver received for real and personal property and assets of every character, $1,690,000 together with $7,500,000 capital stock of the Bethlehem Steel Company and $250,000 for the capital stock of the constituent companies. There remains in the receiver's hands after paying all determined indebtedness a balance of $16,941.

PITH OF NEWS FROM THE MIDDLE WEST.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Good-by, for a time, to the good weather. Showers are predicted for Chicago tomorrow—not a deluge, like that of last week, but "occasional" showers, with warmer weather and fresh winds from the Southeast. Thunderstorms are scattered about the West, and one may come to town with the rain. There was little change in temperature today, the extremes marking 69 and 78 deg. Middle West temperatures:

ETHEL RUBEY DISAPPEARS. Mystery surrounds the disappearance of 15-year-old Ethel Rube, of West Seventy-third street. The police have not been able to find any trace of her since she left her home to sing at an entertainment at the Englewood Presbyterian Church, and it is feared she has met with foul play. The fact that the girl, before leaving home, asked her brother to accompany her seems to discount the theory of elopement. Miss Rube was very pretty, and was widely known as a singer.

HER "LEAP FOR LIFE." [BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.] MILWAUKEE (Wis.) Aug. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "I did not do anything worth mentioning," said Mrs. E. W. Allison of New York, a short time after she had leaped into the river at Michigan street bridge in an heroic, though unsuccessful effort to rescue a sailor, who fell overboard from the whaleback Christopher Columbus. The youth had gone down the fourth time when Mrs. Allison sprang into the water, but she swam around and went beneath the surface several times trying to recover the body before life was extinct. Mrs. Allison was formerly Miss Winterhalter of this city. A year ago she was married to a New York physician. She was in the office of the Goodrich Transportation Company when she heard the cry that a boy had fallen overboard.

HARTJE PILLORIED BY MYSTERIOUS "BLOND."

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 1.—Probably the most sensational incidents and testimony in the Hartje divorce case in the five weeks it has been running were brought out today when Alma Ross, the mysterious "blond" who kept in rooming-house across the street from the Hartje home, frequently met at the room at the Ross woman's house; that the Wright woman brought him there and introduced him, and said that the house at which he was living was too public and too close to the Hartje warehouse.

Hartje, several days ago swore that he did not know Josephine Wright and never had visited her. The Wright woman swore that she did not know Hartje. This was when Hartje's attorney was introducing evidence in rebuttal.

The issue as to the disputed love letters was defined today when Tom Madine, the coachman who is named as the co-representative in the case, swore that the letters which the private detectives said were taken from his trunk never were in that receptacle.

She wrote only two letters to Sude Wagner and denied telling Blanche Ashby what testimony she would give.

Detectives H. G. Staub and John

A. Anderson, who testified that they took the famous "love letters" from Tom Madine's trunk were arrested at the courthouse on information sworn out by Madine, charging them with entering a building with intent to commit a felony and larceny. They were later released on bonds of $500 each, furnished by Atty. Edward Hartje, a brother of Augustus Hartje.

Just before the adjournment of the Hartje divorce trial today, Fred Long, a newspaper man, was called to the stand by John Freeman, of counsel for Mrs. Hartje. Long testified that Atty. Marion of Hartje's counsel told him in February of a number of letters in possession of the Hartje lawyers.

This was several months before Fisher, Hartje's brother-in-law, said he had found copies of their existence. This also was some months before Madine's trunk was broken open, from which the letters were alleged to have been taken, with the exception of one.

Atty. Marion answered Long's testimony and threatened him with violence after court adjourned. Madine is expected to go on the stand tomorrow.

CUMMINS WON ON ONE BALLOT.

And Nobody Said "This Is So Sudden."

The Republicans of Iowa a "Progressive" Party.

Sullivan Will Fight Bryan. Hearst Buffaloes 'Em.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

DES MOINES (Ia.) Aug. 1.—The Republican State Convention today renominated Gov. A. B. Cummins for chief executive on the first ballot, and completed the nominations for State offices.

DES MOINES, Aug. 1.—The Republican State Convention today adopted a platform favoring "reciprocity inaugurated by Blaine and advocated by McKinley and Roosevelt."

All fear of a split in the convention, with the consequent certainty of two Republican tickets in the field, disappeared when Gov. Cummins's strength developed in the district caucuses held this morning, and the convention was as harmonious as any ever held by the Republicans of the State.

Gov. Cummins, as he claimed all along, had a majority of the delegates, and the action of the State Central Committee in adding to the temporary organization some Perkins delegates did not interfere with his control of the situation. His friends controlled not only the Committee on Credentials, but secured the adoption of the platform they submitted to the Committee on Resolutions.

Both for the party.

After Gov. Cummins was renominated, a committee was appointed to escort him to the platform. He made a little speech, in which he said the thing nearest his heart was the Republican party.

Perkins was also called out, and was received with cheers. He said that in the future, as in the past, he would be loyal to the Republican party, and resided in its ranks.

The majority of the other officers on the State ticket were nominated by acclamation, a ballot being necessary for Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer and Railroad Commissioners.

PLANKS FROM THE PLATFORM.

The platform adopted pledges the enactment of a wise and judicious primary election law, which will provide for the nomination by direct vote of all candidates for office to be filed at the general election, and an expression of party preference in the selection of United States Senators.

It favors stringent laws against the corrupting influences of corporate power in politics.

On the tariff question, the platform says: "We are uncompromisingly in favor of the American system of protection. We believe that all inequalities in the tariff schedules which inevitably arise from changing industrial and commercial conditions should be adjusted from time to time, and condemning without reserve all assaults upon the protective system, we favor such reasonable and timely changes as will keep the tariff in harmony with our industrial and commercial progress."

"We favor the reciprocity inaugurated by Blaine, advocated by McKinley and Roosevelt as recognized in Republican platforms and legislation."

COMPLETE TICKET.

Following is the complete ticket: Governor—A. B. Cummins. Lieutenant—Governor—Warren G. East. Secretary of State—W. C. Hayward. Auditor of State—B. F. Carroll. Treasurer of State—W. F. Morrow. Attorney-General—State—H. W. Byers. Superintendent of Public Instruction—John P. Higgins.

HISS SHAW FIVE MINUTES.

Republican Delegates of the Secretary's Home District Hurt His Feelings.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

DES MOINES (Iowa) Aug. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw, was subjected to the humiliation of hearing his name blazed for five minutes, while sitting in a box at the Republican State Convention.

The extraordinary occurrence is the talk of the immense crowd which has been here for several days past.

Temporary Chairman H. M. Towner in his speech, eulogizing the work of the Iowa delegation in Congress, referred by name to the Iowans in the Cabinet.

Secretary Shaw's name was at first greeted with generous applause, which was followed by a storm of hisses.

The Secretary occupied a box with Perkins, candidate for Governor. The hissing was started by delegates from Shaw's own Congress district. He is plainly hurt by the exhibition, but refused to discuss the matter.

Supreme Judges—E. McLean, John C. Sherwin, Charles E. Clark, the Supreme Court—John C. Crockett. Reporter of Court—W. W. Cornwell. Railroad Commissioners—W. L. Eaton, David J. Palmer.

HEARST BUFFALOES 'EM.

DEMOCRATS GO HIS WAY.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Although aided by Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, the three up-State members of the Democratic State Committee who have undertaken the task of "delivering" the Democratic State organization to W. E. Hearst, did not venture to raise the Hearst issue in the meeting of the Democratic State Committee, which took place at noon, yesterday, in the Hoffman House.

The conservatives carried out their programme by a unanimous vote of the committee, the proceedings being confined to issuing the call for the State convention. The session lasted only five minutes.

David B. Hill, who is personally opposed to Hearst, will not attend the convention.

SULLIVAN AND HEARST.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When Democratic Congressional headquarters were opened today, Congressman James T. Lloyd sat in his office alone, his associate, Congressman Rainey, having gone home to help in primary fight. Lloyd was silent and declined to make any statements. This silence at first was attributed to awe of the great city's confusion. Later it was learned that the latest Congressman was frightened at the aspect of the Democratic party's affairs as the result of Bryan's letters and Rainey's connection with the attack on Roger Sullivan.

Sullivan declined to add anything to the statement he issued, except to say he had no intention of resigning.

There are those who see in the near future an alliance between the Hearst movement and Sullivan's forces to undermine Bryan. That Hearst is trying to control the Independent labor-unions political movement known as the Progressive Alliance is vouched for by leaders in that enterprise.

At a meeting of the representatives of all labor unions, Andrew M. Lawrence offered to the National Committee, providing it change its name to "The Independence League." His offer was refused.

"INDEPENDENT LEAGUE."

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The State Committee of the Independent League today effected permanent organization and sent a telegram to Hearst, in California, pledging "our earnest and loyal support, and insist that you shall serve the people as their candidate for Governor in the coming contest."

DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE.

The Democratic State Committee today voted to hold the next State convention at Buffalo, September 25. Before the meeting, W. J. Conners of Buffalo said that the meeting of the Independent League yesterday would not affect Hearst's chances for the Democratic nomination by the regular State convention.

"We will go ahead and nominate Mr. Hearst anyhow," said Conners. "The whole Buffalo delegation will be instructed for Hearst. Nothing can prevent Hearst's nomination."

Norman E. Mack of Buffalo, member of the National Committee, spoke from this State, spoke in the same way.

NO TEST VOTE.

There was no test vote of any kind at the committee meeting. The Hearst men, however, were jubilant over the selection of Buffalo as the place for holding the convention.

Senator McCarren said: "While it is a fact that we have agreed to hold the convention in Buffalo, yet it must not be construed to mean that I have changed in any manner my vote for Mr. Hearst and his political party."

Murphy, who was standing beside Senator McCarren, said: "Nevertheless, we are going to meet in Buffalo."

POCATELLO (Idaho) Aug. 1.—A woman smashed the slate prepared by the Republican leaders of Idaho, a convention, in which there was only one woman delegate, a stampede was effected, this evening, and Miss S. Belle Chamberlain of Boise City was nominated for State Superintendent of Public Instruction over E. A. Carpenter of Idaho Falls. The sympathy of the convention was with Miss Chamberlain from the first, and when Ada Carpenter cast its twenty-seven votes and "book." Every delegation voting

THE PROCEEDINGS.

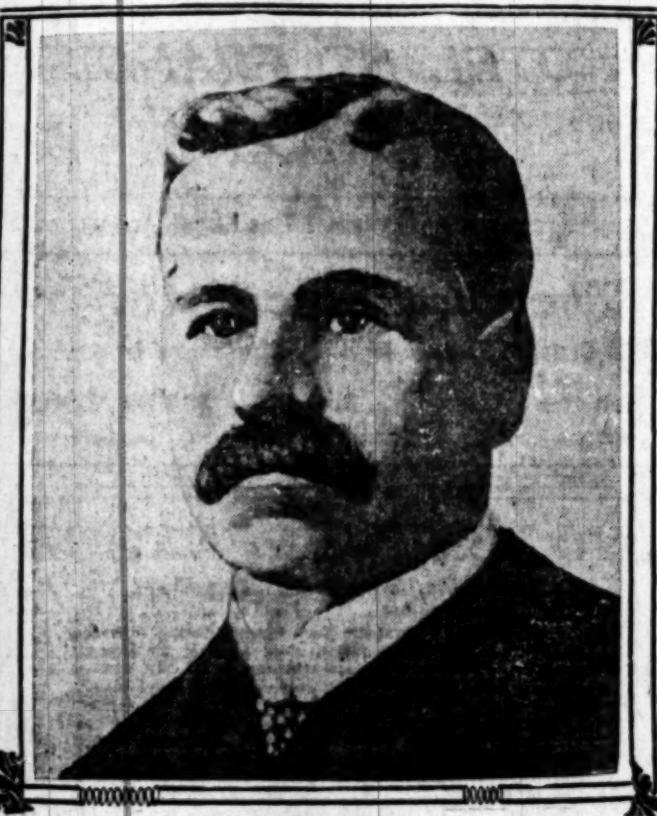

When the State convention convened today there was every indication that the compromise ticket agreed upon in caucus yesterday would be put through by Gov. Frank R. Gooding. State Chairman James H. Brady and W. E. Borah, and that the convention would endorse Borah for the United States Senatorship, return Gov. Gooding to the Governorship, and elect French and nominate candidates for the other State offices satisfactory to Gooding and Borah.

Fifty or sixty "insurgent" delegates from Northern and Eastern Idaho, who organized last night to fight what they termed "machine" and "tag" rule were in caucus again this morning, and received the report from their steering committee appointed last night. The committee recommended that candidates who were turned down in the caucus of party leaders be placed in nomination before the State ticket, but while the insurgents were practically unanimous in their desire to fight the State ticket, they generally admitted that the Gooding-Brady-Borah combination controlled more than a majority of the 229 delegates, and that the opposition candidates would stand little show before the convention.

State Chairman Brady called the convention to order, and announced that the State Central Committee had agreed upon the following temporary officers of the convention: Chairman, R. O. Barber, Nebo; Secretary, Addison C. Smith, Twin Falls; Assistant Secretary, W. S. Chaney, Pocatello. This recommendation was endorsed by the convention, following which a committee was appointed to escort to the northern United States Senator, Heyburn, Congressman French, Gov. Gooding and W. E. Borah. They were heartily applauded.

Temporary Chairman Barber's speech was brief. His reference to the President was applauded, and when he referred to the determination of the Republicans of Idaho to uphold Gov. Gooding, it seemed to be interpreted by the convention as a reference to

U. S. DIST. ATTY. DEVLIN, who will break up "lumber trust," which is seriously-retarding reconstruction of San Francisco.

"LUMBER TRUST" TO BE PROBE NEXT.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The "lumber trust" is the next big corporation which will be investigated. United States District Attorney Robert T. M. Devlin is now making a study of the lumber situation. If he finds that charges are borne out by facts there will be indictment and prosecution of men responsible for raising the rates on lumber and thus increasing the cost of rebuilding San Francisco.

Following are a few of the questions which the "lumber trust" will have to answer:

Why is every dealer required to post a bond of $500 upon becoming a member of the association?

Why are independent lumbermen required to pay $1 more than the list price on timber, while members of the association are given a wholesale rate?

Why are certain favored contractors charged $7 per thousand less for lumber than their less fortunate rivals?

Assistant United States Attorney Black said today: "We are certain there is an illegal combine among the lumber dealers. The fact that dealers are required to post a bond to keep up prices, if it can be proved, is in itself sufficient evidence to justify indictment by the grand jury."

The local grand jury recently began an inquiry into the methods by which lumber rates were raised. Much data and considerable evidence had been gathered, when it was learned that such affairs were beyond the authority of the body.

In a letter to the foreman of the grand jury the United States District Attorney has asked for any information or evidence secured during the investigation.

Since the fire the prices of lumber have advanced on an average of $3 per 1000 feet and it is rumored that another increase of $1 to $2 has been in contemplation.

for the lady was cheered, and before the vote could be announced the convention was carried by storm and Miss Chamberlain's nomination was made unanimous.

THE FULL TICKET.

The ticket nominated was as follows: For Justice of Supreme Court—George H. Steadman, Boise. For Member of Congress—Burton Lee French, Moscow (renominated). For Governor—Frank R. Gooding, Shoshone (renominated). For Lieutenant-Governor—E. A. Burrill, Montpelier. Secretary of State—Robert Landson, Weiser. Treasurer—C. A. Hastings, Lewiston.

Auditor—Robert E. Bragaw, Kootenai county (renominated). Attorney-General—John J. Guheen, Pocatello (renominated). Superintendent of Public Instruction—Miss S. Belle Chamberlain, Boise City.

Inspector of Mines—Robert M. Bell of Blackfoot (nominated). United States Senator—William E. Borah of Boise City.

SULLIVAN WILL KEEP ILLINOIS FROM ENDORSING HIM.

Committee's Friends Expect to Control Peoria Convention by More Than Two-thirds of the Delegates. Democratic Headquarters Open in Palmer House in Silence.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Democratic Congressional headquarters were opened in the Palmer House, today, with a profound silence. It is said the leaders are frightened at the aspect of Democratic party affairs, as a result of the Bryan letters and his attack on Roger Sullivan.

The Progressive Alliance declined Hearst's suggestion to change its name to the Independence League.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] William Jennings Bryan must pay the penalty for his demand that Roger C. Sullivan, Democratic National Committee member from Illinois, be ousted from the National Committee. This decree has gone out of the Hopkins-Sullivan camp, and the penalty is set as the absence of endorsement of Bryan for the Presidency by the Democratic State convention, which meets at Peoria August 21.

Sullivan's friends expect to control that convention by more than two-thirds of the delegates. They declare that Millard F. Dunlap and Judge Owen P. Thompson of Jacksonville, whom they credit with the responsibility for Bryan's anti-Sullivan letters, will not have enough delegates in the Peoria assembly to make a respectable "Committee on Lonesome Roads."

Sullivan, in replying to Bryan's letter, gave out a statement in which he says:

"If the letter was written by Mr. Bryan, it furnishes proof that he has allowed himself to persist in what the Democratic National Convention of 1904 declared was a misrepresentation and a libel. It is probable that he is mistaken again, as he was on the free-silver question, and that he is willing again, as he was when he permitted himself to cut an unenviable figure as he did in the Bennett will controversy."

But if I were willing to resign, as requested, I could not do so under present conditions. If I did, after the charge which Mr. Bryan makes, I would be declaring that only the I was guilty of fraud, but that three-fourths of the Democratic leaders in the country were equally guilty."

GOVERNMENT MONTHLY STATEMENT ISSUED.

Switching of the Central Pacific Semi-Annual Settlement. Note Makes Report Apparently Favor 1905, but When Properly Figured Shows Better Result for This Year.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The monthly comparative statement of the government receipts and expenditures, issued today, shows that for the month ended July 31, the total receipts were $22,293,532, and the expenditures $25,121,721, leaving a deficit for the month of $2,828,189, as against a deficit on August 1, 1905, of $13,855,682.

The report of the monthly statement of the Central Pacific Railroad Company, amounting to $2,762,000, was paid on the last day of July, so that it was taken into the July account. The total receipts for July, amounting to $2,780,630, due August 1, 1906, were not paid until today and therefore will be stated in the August account. The exact deficit this month, therefore, is $2,101,424 less than July, 1905.

The receipts from the several sources of revenue are given as follows: Customs, $2,176,744; increase, $4,500,000; internal revenue, $22,102,238; increase, $1,014,000.

Miscellaneous, $4,019,860; decrease, $2,785,000.

The expenditures for the month were $2,828,000 in excess of those for July, 1905, which is largely due to work on the Panama Canal.

NO MEXICAN UPRISING.

THOMPSON HAS SEEN DIAZ.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The State Department has received the following dispatch from Ambassador Thompson at the City of Mexico:

"You will please cause the Associated Press to say that statements in American papers relative to an uprising of Mexicans against Americans in Mexico September is without foundation so far as is discoverable in Mexico, where seemingly all knowledge of an uprising comes from reading American papers received in this city."

"President Diaz assures me this morning, as he did a week ago, that he is unable to find cause for any of the alarming interviews and statements reported to have been given out by Americans returning to the United States from this city."

"The Mexican government, however, because of the alarming stories put in circulation, are vigilant to the last degree, and would disturb anyone developed at any point, the offenders will be dealt with as their cases may permit."

LANE ADMITS HE HIT SMILDE.

Butcher May Face a Charge of Murder.

Fought With Chauffeur and Took to Heels.

Police Look for Unidentified Woman in Case.

After spending a night and a day working on all clues that could be discovered in the killing of John A. Smilde, the police last evening arrested Alfred Edward Graham Lane, a butcher, and Harry Doble, Lane is suspected of having caused the death of Smilde, while Doble is being held on suspicion of being implicated in the case.

ALFRED E. LANE, who is charged with having killed Chauffeur Smilde.

on suspicion of being implicated in the case. Lane admits quarreling with Smilde and knocking him down. Captain of Detectives Flammie gave the case his personal attention yesterday and stated last night that the mystery surrounding the killing of Smilde had been cleared.

No inquest was held over the remains of Smilde yesterday, as had been planned. At the last moment it was found that several of the most important witnesses in the case could not be present and Coroner Trout postponed the investigation until this morning at 3 o'clock.

Dr. Campbell, autopsy surgeon, examined the remains of Smilde yesterday and stated absolutely that the man had been killed by a blow on the point of the chin. It was at first thought Smilde had been knocked down from behind and that his chin had struck the pavement with such force that his neck had been broken.

The autopsy brought out the fact that when Smilde fell the side of his head struck the pavement. Dr. Campbell stated that the blow of a fist on the point of the chin had broken a vertebrae just below the base of the skull and had also caused a hemorrhage of the brain, which resulted in quick death.

SMILDE'S COMPANIONS. With Smilde Tuesday night, when the fight in which he lost his life occurred, were Walter L. Hickman, an employee of the Southern Pacific Company, Mrs. Harry Doble and an unidentified woman. Lane was accompanied by Harry Doble, husband of Smilde's companion. Lane has been living with the Dobles at No. 139 North Avenue 19 for some time.

The police in possession of information which it is thought will enable them to locate the unidentified woman in the case and probably she will be subpoenaed to appear in court together with Mrs. Doble. The police have no case against either of the women, but it is believed they will prove valuable witnesses.

After his arrest last evening, Lane told his side of the story to Capt. Flammie. He was not at home on Tuesday evening and shortly before 9 o'clock Doble and I went downtown and were waiting for him. When we walked up San Fernando street and had reached a point a few yards from the entrance of Camp's Café at No. 69, Smilde, Hickman, Mrs. Doble and another woman whom I do not know came out of the restaurant door.

"I walked up to Smilde and held out my hand to shake hands. He would not shake hands and that made me mad and so I hit at him. The automobile was standing in front of the restaurant and we fought around the machine. Doble jumped in and fought off Hickman, who tried to interfere in the fight between Smilde and myself. I smashed Smilde a hard one in the mouth and he fell. The crowd gathered and I ran.

"Doble took his wife and went in the other direction and the strange woman disappeared. Then I went home and Mr. Lane, who had come, told me that he had seen Smilde dead and I thought I would be arrested and so left my wagon and hid for awhile and then went home and found an officer there waiting for me.

WHERE BLOW LANDED. "Are you sure you hit Smilde in the mouth; might you not have struck him on the point of the chin?" queried Capt. Flammie.

"Maybe I hit him on the chin, but I thought I landed on his mouth," replied Lane, with a shrug of his shoulders.

Lane is a butcher employed by A. Steiner, No. 1759 East Main street. He is 26 years of age, short of stature, dark of complexion and very muscular. He has been in jail before for using his fists too freely.

Early yesterday morning the police became convinced that Lane was the man who struck the blow which killed Smilde and all day a detective watched in the Avenue 19 house for him. At about 2:30 o'clock he walked into the officer's arms. He was arrested and placed in a solitary cell in the City Jail.

The story told by Lane conflicts in many ways with the stories of other witnesses in the case. The police are having difficulty in tracing the actions of Smilde from the time he left home until he was killed on San Fernando street.

evening at 8 o'clock, when he walked into the saloon at the southwest corner of San Fernando street and Sunset boulevard. In this saloon he asked to use the telephone and sent several messages.

OUT FOR AUTO RIDE. When he left the place he disappeared for a time and at 8 o'clock, accompanied by a man and two women, he entered Menlo and Boulanger's garage at No. 622 Main street and rode away shortly with his friends in the automobile owned by John R. Bragdon.

Smilde was employed by Bragdon as a chauffeur and the auto was kept in the garage. The chauffeur had the right to take it out at any time.

The men in the garage at the time describe Smilde's male friend as being small and dressed in a light suit. One of the women was a tall and rather striking blonde, dressed in light gray. The second woman was of medium height, dressed in black and wore a veil.

It is thought the party went for a short ride in the automobile and then stopped at Camp's restaurant for supper, leaving there shortly after 9 o'clock. When the party left the restaurant it is believed they met Doble and Lane. The auto had been left around the corner on Marchessault street, instead of in front of the restaurant, as claimed by Lane.

When Lane and Doble met the quartette leaving the restaurant, the theory of the police is that Lane joined Smilde and Hickman; that the trio went into the resort run by May Lauten at No. 6916 San Fernando street, and that the two women went with Doble, though where could not be ascertained, for they reappeared again in less than half an hour.

ANOTHER VERSION. A woman in the Lauten resort said yesterday afternoon that three men, one of whom was Smilde, appeared in the place at 9:30 o'clock and remained for half an hour. The woman said a small, heavy-set man who accompanied Smilde was doing his best to get the latter drunk. When the trio left, the woman said two women were seen passing on San Fernando street, one walking north and the other south. The men called to the women and the crowd walked around the corner onto Marchessault street, where the auto was standing.

When the crowd reached the machine, Doble is said to have reappeared and a dispute between the four men arose. "Smilde" Hill, a maid in a resort conducted by Lane, who works at No. 206 Marchessault street, was attracted by the noise and watched the fight from a window. She said yesterday that Smilde tried to force the tall blonde woman of the party to get into the auto. She demurred for a moment and the fight started like a flash.

The negro said a short, heavy-set man struck Smilde several times, and then the others began to fight and the battle fought around the car. The fight started to run. The short man followed him down the street until he knocked Smilde down in front of Gonzalez's grocery store at No. 547 San Fernando street. The women screamed to the men to run and all disappeared. The important features may develop this morning at the inquest at Breece's morgue.

KILLS WRONG MAN IN FEUD. TONOPAH GAMBLER TAKES CONDUCTOR FOR ENEMY.

Fills Up on Liquor and Starts for His Fox, but After Viewing Remains of His Victim He Collapses—County Recorder Dyer Also Is Shot With Same Weapon and May Lose Leg.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) AUSTIN (Tex.) Aug. 1.—Tuesday afternoon Patsy Dwyer, a gambler of Tonopah, and Jack O'Brien, a bartender from Manhattan, had a quarrel in a saloon here and when they parted there was an understanding that the next time they met there would be something doing.

About 5 o'clock Dwyer went to the red light district looking for O'Brien and not finding him he started for town. On turning a corner near the International Hotel, he saw Albert Williams, a conductor on the N. C. Railroad and County Recorder H. W. Dyer standing together and in the moonlight he mistook Williams for O'Brien, and Dyer for Louis Woolcock, O'Brien's partner. Without a word Dwyer fired three shots, one bullet entered Williams' brain and killed him.

One bullet struck Dyer in the leg between the ankle and the knee breaking both bones. Dwyer was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Oliver, but being intoxicated did not realize the enormity of the crime.

This morning Dwyer was taken to Dyer's home and identified and later was led to view the remains of Williams. Believing up to the time that he saw the body that he had killed O'Brien, Dwyer collapsed at sight of the stranger.

NEGRO COAL MINERS SHOT. MEMBERS OF UNION ARRESTED. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) STURGIS (Ky.) Aug. 1.—Two negro coal miners, en route from Providence, late yesterday were held up in the road near Rock Springs and riddled with bullets by two men with Winchester rifles. One of the miners was killed and the other was badly wounded. The other was brought in in a dying condition.

Harvey Springer and Bob Hall, active members of the Miners' Union, were arrested and taken to the Morganfield jail.

A farmer, who was an eyewitness, says the two men were in a buggy, that they had gun and stopped the negroes in the road, inquiring if they were going to Sturgis to work for the West Kentucky Coal Company. The negroes gave an evasive answer, whereupon both men shot at them. The negro fell instantly, the other ran and was disabled at the third shot.

WHERE BLOW LANDED. "Are you sure you hit Smilde in the mouth; might you not have struck him on the point of the chin?" queried Capt. Flammie.

"Maybe I hit him on the chin, but I thought I landed on his mouth," replied Lane, with a shrug of his shoulders.

Lane is a butcher employed by A. Steiner, No. 1759 East Main street. He is 26 years of age, short of stature, dark of complexion and very muscular. He has been in jail before for using his fists too freely.

The story told by Lane conflicts in many ways with the stories of other witnesses in the case. The police are having difficulty in tracing the actions of Smilde from the time he left home until he was killed on San Fernando street.

Times reporters followed the case yesterday and found that Smilde first appeared in the "Tenderloin" Tuesday

OPEN UNDERTAKING PARLORS. New and Artistic Quarters of Breece Brothers Are Inspected by Many Visitors.

Breece Brothers kept open house last night at their handsome new quarters on the corner of Figueroa and Lincoln streets. Flooded with light from hundreds of incandescent bulbs, the funeral parlors, which are perhaps the finest on the Coast, were open from cellar to garret for the inspection of guests.

The building, which was completed recently from the plans of Architects Parkinson & Bergstrom, is specially adapted to the needs of such an establishment. There is a chapel with a seating capacity for about 300 persons. Pews, instead of chairs, occupy the auditorium, the seating capacity of which can be enlarged by the opening of other rooms.

There is a large reception hall, parlors and waiting rooms, and the furnishings are highly modern and elegant. A wide stairway leads to the upper floor. The morgue shows all the latest appliances for the handling of bodies. Preparation has been made for four burials and men remain night and day at the establishment.

The affair last night was in the form of a general house warming. The funeral parlors, which are perhaps the finest on the Coast, were open from cellar to garret for the inspection of guests.

FOR THE BIG RACE. In preparation for his race with F. C. Penner to the Big Horn mine on Mt. Baldy, Leon T. Shettler went over the course yesterday. With him was Hanshue, who will drive the car in the race. Hanshue drove all the way, and kept up a twenty-nine-hour clip. The pair started in a sixteen-horsepower race at 1 o'clock yesterday morning and made the distance to the mine in just over five hours. Shettler says he thinks quite a little time can be cut from the figure. After staying at the mine awhile, they came back more leisurely and arrived in the city at 7 o'clock.

Shettler reports the going as fair, with some bad grades. The car was able to make a large portion of the distance on the high gear and went over the ground in good style. The approach to the mine Mr. Shettler says is as bad or worse than the Nevada grade, and for several miles the use of the low gear is necessary.

UNDELIVERED TELEGRAMS. There are undelivered telegrams at the office of the Postal Telegraph Company for E. Myron Wolf, Alta Wessel, Mrs. J. K. Prosser, E. W. Berthier, Mrs. W. T. Adkinson and L. R. Clark.

A meeting in the Zion tabernacle unanimously nominated Wilbur Voliva for general overseer of the church, for election in September, in accordance with the recent order of Judge Landis.

The score this morning presents some sweeping changes. Bertha Smith, the Cucamonga girl, heads the list. She has the distinction of being the first contestant who has succeeded in routing Merle Prewitt and Vivian Bassett from this top perch, which they have occupied alternatively ever since the contest opened. That this Cucamonga girl means business has been foreseen for days, but it was a surprise to everybody when she suddenly alighted on the top perch this morning.

Grace Allen, the Sawtelle candidate, has no intention of halting because she happens to be several thousand behind these three leaders. She appeared at headquarters again yesterday and turned in almost 40,000 points, bringing her score nearly into the 40,000 row. She is not after the Three Graces (and no one can deny that she is a Grace), and she will fight for a seat on the uppermost branches of the prize plum tree.

THESE GIRLS FLY.
Minnie Ponedel jumps three places and regains her old position in the tenth row, while Esther Zuber follows close after and takes the eleventh perch, leaving three of those boys so far behind that they will rub their eyes this morning and wonder how it all happened. Earl Robinson kept within thirty-three points of Esther, but the other three are away back in the cyclone of dust raised by this flying maiden as she dashed by. Esther turned in the banner score yesterday—over 46,000 points—and she rises six rows and almost reaches the quarter-million on her way to the first 100,000.

WATCH THEM RUN.
Fannie Wolff jumps Covina by just fifteen points. Fannie has returned from San Diego and says about the last of the week, when she has redeemed some promises made to her for the first of this month, she will turn in a score that will just make things fly.

Ignatius Parker and Estella Green turned in exactly the same number of points yesterday, which was a rather curious coincidence—1234 each—and four contestants, Jennie Bloom, Bertha Cohen, William Bolstad and JoAnna Cameron, each turned in upward of 700, while Edith Farrell, Myrtle McCarger and Cecil Green turned in upward of 400 points each. Myrtle's mother has been sick for a week and so Myrtle has been obliged to remain at home and look after the household on the ranch four miles from Compton. This has interfered with her work, and she feels a little anxious about her score, which has not advanced of late. She wants to get into that 7000 row.

Frank Wiggins keeps up his gall and turns in over 1200, thereby advancing two rows and getting directly behind Harry Wood, whom he will jump over if Harry is not careful. Earl Robinson is doing well these days. He brought in 1350 points yesterday, and Blake Tantau raised his score by almost 1800.

Kate Atkinson, the Lordsburg contestant, whose picture appears in this issue, sent in over 1000 points and continues to hold ninth place, as she has done for a long time. Those half-dozen contestants who are only about a couple of thousand points below Kate are running up very fast now and will give her trouble if she doesn't watch out.

SAN DIEGO AWAKE.
Helen Patten, the San Diego girl who has been steadily slipping down

BERTHA SMITH,
today's leader.

the ladder for days, woke up yesterday and braced her score with over 500 points, advancing two rows toward the tenth row, where she used to be.

MONROVIA SLOW.

Leona Smith, the Monrovia candidate, this morning reaches the 6000 column. She is not receiving the support expected from Monrovia and feels rather chagrined that she cannot keep up with Compton or Gardena.

CALEXICO HUSTLING.

Paul Steintorf, the Imperial Valley boy, is hitting the high places these days, and this morning jumps clean over both the thirteenth and fourteenth thousand rows, landing in the 15,000's. There is going to be some fun round about there pretty soon, when JoAnna Cameron, Edna Wagner and Elizabeth McTear get to chasing Ignatius Parker.

Estella Green rises three rows in the score this morning and at the rate she is bounding along it will not be many days before she joins the five-figure crowd.

Jennie Bloom goes up one row this morning and almost hits the 6000 column. Rose Leonard was not able to work at all yesterday on account of sickness in the family. Rose has been steadily advancing for days now. Mansie Kim sent down a few subscriptions on her own account, which bring in the fortune of $500. Evelyn Oakley, the spry little South Pasadena girl, is getting busy again after a week's rest.

THAT POPULAR PIANO.

There has never been a Times contest when so many were seeking musical scholarships. Naturally this fact makes that $500 piano very much in demand. One of the girls who seeks a musical scholarship has no piano and she has fixed her eye on this prize as the one altogether desirable. Whoever wins it will be fortunate, for $500 pianos do not grow on every bush. This particular one is just such an instrument as every girl wants—elegant finish, perfect tone and of the celebrated Schumann make.

AS OTHERS SEEK US.

The Tidings, the leading Catholic publication of this Coast, contains the following notice of the contestants in its issue of July 27:
Ignatius F. Parker, whose portrait appears in this issue, is a bright Catholic boy, fifteen years of age, who is striving for a scholarship in St. Vincent's College in the contest now being held by The Times. He came to Los Angeles last year from Philadelphia, where he had attended St. Vincent's Parochial School, bringing excellent letters from the Christian brothers and the parish priest; since then he has been in the employ of the Ville de Paris, where he has also given satisfaction.

KATE ATKINSON,
Lordsburg contestant.

geles last year from Philadelphia, where he had attended St. Vincent's Parochial School, bringing excellent letters from the Christian brothers and the parish priest; since then he has been in the employ of the Ville de Paris, where he has also given satisfaction.

Ignatius is the kind of boy who ought to be encouraged, striving as he is to secure a better education. He is untiring in his efforts to help himself, but has been very much handicapped, being employed during the day. Notwithstanding this he has secured upward of 10,000 points, and if people generally who admire a manly, energetic boy, and Catholic in particular, will encourage his efforts he is bound to succeed.

Every one can help either by gathering and sending him contributions which are published daily in The Times, paying their present subscription in advance through him or sending him a new subscription, a yearly subscription counting 1000 points.

Being the only Catholic boy in the contest, it is hoped that Catholics will rally to his support and "Do it now."

PIZZES AT STAKE.

The contestant having the highest score at the close of the contest will have first choice of scholarships and, in addition, the $500 piano. The second highest will have second choice of scholarships and the first cash prize of $200, the third will have third choice of scholarships and the cash prize of $125, and so on to the end of the list. The list of scholarships, which may be enlarged before the close of the contest, follows:

CASH PRIZES ADDED.

In accordance with its usual custom during the previous five contests conducted by The Times, special cash prizes will be offered in addition to the scholarship. The sum of $1100 will be divided this year among contestants ranking highest. These cash prizes are designed to help defray the student's incidental or living expenses while attending school and will be divided according to the following scale:

PRIZE PIANO.

A special prize is offered this year besides the fifteen cash prizes printed above—a $500 Schumann piano or any other make of equal value to be found in the Bartlett Music House. The contestant who scores the largest number of points will have first choice of scholarship and, in addition, the $500 piano.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Persons wishing to aid any contestant can most effectively do so by filling out the subscription blank printed at the bottom of this page and sending it to The Times office, together with the cash. Fill in the name of the contestant you desire to help and you may be sure he or she will get proper credit for the points.

(The Times will print notices during the contest concerning the various educational institutions from whom scholarships have been secured for contestants. The object in publishing these notices is to set forth the advantages of each school in order that contestants may be able to choose intelligently the particular school they desire. This morning The Times presents some of the advantages of Eva Keller's Piano School.

EVA KELLER'S PIANO SCHOOL.

Mrs. Eva Keller has offered in her scholarship to The Times a rare opportunity to the musically-inclined contestant who may be the fortunate winner.

Formerly associated with Prof. Fillmore, having charge of advanced piano pupils and Normal work, and with many years of profitable experience, Mrs. Keller is eminently qualified for the high position she holds as a musician.

The requirements of each pupil is a subject of conscientious thought to Mrs. Keller. The hand, the individual, and the temperament of the individual, is thoroughly studied. The old-fashioned method of training all pupils is exactly the same way has long since been eliminated, and here, each pupil is taught to express the soul through the medium of perfectly-trained fingers.

The method used by Mrs. Keller is no hurried one. She has chosen the best and the best methods for her own use in teaching. During her training in the Dr. Robert Goldbeck Conservatory of Music in St. Louis, she was taught to overcome her own technical faults and acquired a keenness in detecting these faults in others, faults that often destroy an otherwise brilliant career.

The school is new, but has been remarkably successful. There is special training for advanced piano pupils, Normal work, and also for pupils who wish to make special grades. Mature hands are trained to flexibility and faults of early musical training overcome.

Catalogues will be issued early in September.

SUDDEN INSANITY.

Young Woman from Arizona Found Almost Nude Upon the Streets, Taken in Custody.

Wildly insane and with hardly a stitch of clothing upon her person, Miss Orpha Shibley of Tucson, Ariz., daughter of the County Recorder of that place, was found in front of No. 1407 South Hope street, yesterday afternoon. Officer Jack Walsh immediately placed the young woman under arrest and she was taken to the Police Station.

Miss Shibley is a blonde with large, expressive blue eyes. She was frightened when the big iron door closed behind her and seemed at once to realize her position. She said she had come to this place to visit a Mrs. Hadron, who, she said, lives on South Hope street.

"I felt the attack coming," she said to Police Matron Gilbert, "while I was changing my clothes. Then I ran into the street and cannot remember anything else."

When taken upstairs Miss Shibley was rational and said she is subject to "epilepsy." She appeared to have suffered from an epileptic fit and was exhausted. The young lady is well educated and says she came to Los Angeles for her health.

The police have wired to her father at Tucson and she will be cared for until word is received from relatives.

MUNICIPAL FILE MAY NOT RISE.

SUPERVISORS OPPOSE PLANS FOR BUILDINGS.

San Francisco County Authorities Think Ruined City Hall and Hall of Justice Can Be Repaired—Senator Perkins Will Reproduce His Alto Building.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—San Franciscans may be disappointed in the hope that one of the attractive features of the new city would be a municipal center, with seven splendid buildings gracing four entire blocks. The Board of Supervisors has gone on record as of the belief that the old City Hall and the Hall of Justice can be repaired, and a commission has been appointed to investigate and report as to whether a rehabilitation of the two structures is practicable. It is the plan of the Supervisors to have the City Hall and the Hall of Justice repaired, temporary occupancy, pending the completion of permanent repairs upon the buildings.

United States Senator Perkins has announced that the Alto building, which, before the fire, stood at the corner of Kearny and Bush streets, will be reproduced along its original lines, but at slightly greater cost. The new building will be of class A construction and eight stories in height. Architect Mr. J. Lyons, who has drawn the plans, estimates its cost at $90,000.

The order of Jesuits in this city, which lost its magnificent building, covering the entire block bounded by Van Ness avenue and Hayes, Franklin and Grove streets, has purchased a block of land in the Western Addition, north of the park panhandle, on which to rebuild. The price paid was $120,000. The former site of the Jesuit buildings, which has been leased to Wanamaker & Brown, the Chicago mercantile firm, will be covered in its entirety by a building five stories high.

Mrs. H. Winkler has let the contract for the construction of a large apartment house at the corner of Lyon and McAllister streets. It will be a three-story and basement building of colonial style and the cost is estimated at $20,000. The contract calls for its completion by November 1 of this year.

RAZING PALACE RUINS.
The razing of the ruins of the Palace Hotel is to be begun next week. The management of the Sharon estate has received assurance from the insurance companies that the necessary permission is to be granted within a few days, the adjustment of the claims having reached a satisfactory stage. The tearing down of the walls will occupy about four months, at the expiration of which the plans for the new Palace will have been completed and the contracts let for its erection.

Mrs. Marie Roberts will be the proud owner of the first substantial residence constructed since the fire. W. C. Mahoney has contracted to have completed within ninety days a building in the mission style of architecture, to cost about $10,000.

Plans have been drawn and bids are being received for the erection of a four-story brick building at the corner of Dupont and Commercial streets, in Chinatown. H. H. Hedger, the architect, estimates the cost at $80,000, and expects the structure to be completed within six months. The names of the owners of the proposed building are not given, but its tenants are to be Chinese, the lower floor of the structure to provide space for an Oriental bazaar.

AIMED TO BE SAILOR FREE.

BUT NEIL SOON SAW SEA LIFE HAD ITS THORNS.

Frankie Takes to Punching Faces After Siege With Holystone on Dirty Decks and Days of Wrestling With Frozen Chunks of Water—A Tale of Blighted Hopes.

Tom Sharkey is not the only sailor who can handle his dukes in the prize ring. Frankie Neil lays claim to being something of a sailor himself.

Frankie's first experience on the sea was when he shipped as commissary clerk on the transport Grant, plying between San Francisco and Manila. The bantamweight was swelled up with importance like a pouter pigeon on dress parade the day he stepped aboard the transport. Within a few minutes others embarking began to single him out as the commander of the ship.

Commissary clerk sounded like a big berth to the fighter, and he gazed about the ship. In fact he required a letter of introduction to get within ten feet of him. He figured that before he was out three days he would have the commander on bread and water in the brig, and half the crew in irons while he sat in the pilot house, smoking good cigars and fished with the mermaids in the moonlight.

Everything went well until the ship passed through the Golden Gate and headed for the Orient. Then the disillusionment of Frankie came as suddenly as a typhoon in the Yellow Sea. He reported to his superior officer for orders. Not even taking the trouble to salute, he held a contempt for the man who was soon to be reduced to the rank of his little subordinates. "Get off those shoes and scrub deck," came the order.

"But I am supposed to be commissary clerk," protested the fighter.

"Commissary clerk," responded the man at the head of the grub department, "you'll be scrubbing the deck or to the brig with you. Get a move on and report to the second steward instantly."

Frankie walked away with downcast eyes. He saw the gold braid fading away in the distance, and even felt that he had done the commander an injury by thinking so little of him.

But let Frankie tell it: "The second steward was about as grouchy an individual as one meets in the ranks. He was always at work scrubbing decks. I had a pair of crash trousers and a sleeveless sweater, and with a little cap I looked the candy kid. Every time I turned around that fellow had me scrubbing something."

"After the first day I felt like swimming in the Pacific. I had to drag the twelve cakes of ice from the ice machine down to a hatch, use a rope and tackle to lower it to another hatch, and then drag it to the refrigerating room. The cakes used to fall to the bottom of the hold and smash to smithereens. That second steward was always growling around like a Thomas cat looking for trouble. I bet I challenged that fellow to a boxing match every hour in the day. He would tell me to 'skid along kid and get the prayer stone.' This meant down on your knees with a big stone and wearing out a little of the deck getting it white."

"Finally they began sending me to the refrigerating room for pickles, etc., and I began getting away with from four to five pickles per trip, and what of these I did not eat I sold for two bits apiece. My stomach was so puckered I almost had to eat dynamite to blow an opening large enough for hard tack."

"But there was one thing positive. I cleaned every board in that ship several times over, and one day told the commissary that if he would let me pitch a little pool, weigh the anchor and steer a trick, I could qualify as a first-class seaman, if not commander of ship."

"It's nix on the sea for me. I'd rather punch a few faces for mine. It beats the prayer stone a mile."

You are a pianist for your own enjoyment, and the entertainment of your friends, as soon as you possess a Cecilian—and possession is made easy by liberal terms. Price $275.

WRECK STOPS BRIDAL TRIP.

Wedded Pair Hurt Seventy Minutes After Ceremony.

Passengers on Sierra Madre Car Smashed by Train.

Planned to Announce Nuptial
Secret on Mt. Wilson.

Instead of a sweet honeymoon spent on the mile-high peak of Mt. Wilson, H. E. Cordrey and his bride, nee Miss Carrie M. Joss, both well-known young people of Los Angeles, are suffering from injuries received in the smash-up of the Sierra Madre street car last Saturday, and the dramatic announcement of their secret nuptials, which they had planned, failed to be realized.

Saturday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock Miss Joss and Mr. Cordrey were quietly married by Rev. B. F. Coulter of the Broadway Christian Church, and hid themselves quickly to the Huntington building. There they took the ill-fated 1:15 o'clock car on the Pacific Electric line, which hastened toward Sierra Madre in time to meet a death-dealing blow from a Southern Pacific engine at 1:40 o'clock, just seventy minutes after the wedding.

An outing had been planned on Mt. Wilson, and, in company with George peared, it will take two or three days to determine whether an operation will be necessary. The trouble is one that may lead to serious results.

Mr. Moore, with his wife, arrived in Los Angeles Tuesday from Salt Lake, where he had gone after a short stay in Denver. He was quite sick on the train, but supposed that he had an attack of grippe. His car was very painful for a while, but the pain disappeared suddenly when he was on the train.

Arriving in the city, Mr. Moore went to the Angelus, and called in Dr. E. W. Fleming. An examination revealed that the sudden moderation of pain while on the train was due to bursting of the car drum. Because of the accurate care necessary in a case of this character, and the possible developments, Dr. Fleming ordered Mr. Moore's removal to a hospital, and accordingly he was taken to the California Hospital.

At a late hour last night he was reported resting easily, with no bad symptoms.

TIGHT SQUEEZE AT CONVENTION.

VENICE WILL BE JAMMED FULL
FOR THE WEEK.

Candidates and Delegates Swoop Down on All the Available Quarters and the Wise Ones from the Country Precincts Will Carry Their Blankets With Them.

That politics makes strange bedfellows will be exemplified in a striking manner at the county convention of the Republicans, which opens on the first day at Venice.

There will be such a crush of candi-

MR. AND MRS. H. E. CORDREY, who were obliged to reveal secret marriage after Sierra Madre wreck.

Bromley, Miss Eva Boggs, Frank Carroll and Miss Fannie Hannaman of this city, Cordrey and his bride set forth.

While the two principals had been paying marked attention to each other for some time, an immediate marriage was not looked for, and the wedding of less than an hour previous was kept secret. Cordrey planned to announce the hymeneal secret when he and his bride were at Mt. Wilson, and send his friends back to the city with the news.

The party was encumbered with numerous packages, such as a party board for a day's outing, generally carry, and principal among these packages was a large pound cake, which chivalrous Mr. Cordrey lugged under his arm.

The product was to serve as the wedding cake when the announcement of the marriage was made.

When the crash came at the crossing the party was thrown about like chips in a storm. All were badly bruised, but not seriously injured. Through it all Cordrey clung to his wedding cake, and when they finally left the badly wrecked car he was lugging under his arm a much dilapidated pound cake.

When the frightful extent of the smash-up was recognized, Cordrey flung his cake from him, and though bleeding profusely from a bad scalp wound, worked valiantly to help the more unfortunate victims who were pinned under the crushed timbers of the street car.

Mrs. Cordrey was badly injured. Her ankle was bruised and a blood vessel ruptured. She was weak from great loss of blood and it was necessary for her husband to carry her to the relief train.

The other members of the party were also injured and were taken to their homes. It is related that before leaving the scene of the wreck, Cordrey hunted up his wedding cake and carried it with him.

The announcement of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Cordrey had not been made when the relief train carrying the injured passengers started for Los Angeles. Then, to the accompaniment of the groans of the injured and the rattling of the coaches, Cordrey told his friends of the wedding celebrated just before starting on the trip and of how he had planned to announce the nuptials when the top of Mt. Wilson had been reached.

On the arrival of the relief train in this city the injured bride and groom were carried to the hospital. It was decided later to take refuge in the apartments formerly occupied by Mrs. Cordrey at No. 212 Albany street.

The friends were taken to their homes but they vow that they will still celebrate the wedding of Cordrey and Miss Joss on the summit of Mt. Wilson.

Cordrey is a drapery cutter in the employ of the Pacific Purchasing Company of this city and is well known throughout the city. He says that the number 12 has been a hoodoo to him for the Southern Pacific engine, 128, and also to the fact that numerals making up the number of the wrecked street car if added together total the same fell number, 12.

He says, however, that when his bride recovered and he is able to make the same party will make the trip to Mt. Wilson and celebrate the delayed honeymoon.

dates and delegates that the mode-to-order seaside city will be jammed to the roof. The crowd will be forced over both ends of the city, likewise back to the eastward and even out to sea, while cars will run all night to accommodate those who wish to return to Los Angeles each day.

Those who essay to stay in Venice will be herded in rooms as many to each as can crowd. When the beds are all taken, the overflow will go to the floor and to hallways. The really discerning delegates from Antelope Valley and thereabouts will bring his blankets with him.

While it may not be necessary for the "country" delegate to take his tent with him to Venice, it is almost certain that even a cot in the hall or a shake-down on the floor will command a fat price in the city of canals and strifes during convention week.

Admiral Lawton, who acts as Mayor of Venice in the absence of any out-ranking officer, says he has received orders to engage for the convention days every hotel room he can secure. These will accommodate probably 200 persons. The Country Club-house may be able to shelter another hundred. And there you are.

The convention will consist of 837 delegates. There will be more than a hundred candidates for way-nobbling about managers, lieutenants, secretaries, bottle washers, stenographers, et cetera. A liberal estimate for the "bird house" is 1000. From this it will be seen that Venice will be quite well filled on those days.

But there are numerous other hotels and lodging houses scattered all along the bay, from the Arcadia to the Playa and The Del Rey at Playa del Rey. At all of these places reservations are already being made for convention week. But the "spare room" in the several thousand cozy beach bungalows will come to the rescue in a noble way. These will be prepared to accommodate the other hundreds and thousands who may try to get in to see the fun as it is manufactured at a convention by the sea.

On the week of the convention the Los Angeles-Pacific Electric line will maintain an "owl" service. Cars will be operated regularly on schedule from 3 a. m. and later if there is a demand, after that hour for transport between the sea and the city. By this arrangement, delegates, candidates, workers, the machine, the push and the free-born American citizen who wishes to lie down to pleasant dreams in Los Angeles will be able to gratify that desire.

The candidates are already having a merry chase in the selection of headquarters. There are twenty-seven rooms suitable for this purpose in the auditorium, which is to be the convention hall. Every room has already been taken. Sheriff White has secured the keys for one suite. Keys to others are in the hands of John Burr, H. I. Fordard, G. H. Hutton, James Rives, Walter Parker, Judge Moore, John Summerfield, and—but the list is a long one.

On the ship Cabrillo, E. R. Werdtin will have everything his own way. He has taken the entire forward cabin, consisting of three rooms—and it is from this that he will make his headquarters for the convention. He is probable the "one empty store room" on Windward avenue will be similarly utilized.

The auditorium will accommodate a large number of spectators, during the convention, and they will be confined to the balcony. Here the Venice of America Band will be on duty to enliven the race between the heats.

George Stanley was hanged at the jail in Windsor, N. C., yesterday morning for the murder of Freeman Harvie, an aged farmer of Elberta, Maine on February 1, last.

BANKERS SHY AT THIS LOAN.

State Warrants Offered as Good Security.

Soldier Boys Say That They Need the Money.

Militiamen in Other Cities Get Their Coin.

Members of the National Guard of California who went from Los Angeles to help preserve order and property in San Francisco and near-by towns immediately after the earthquake and fire are not as happy as they might be. Some of them lost their jobs as a consequence of fulfilling their duty to their State; none of them have been paid for their services.

But the soldier boys from all other points have been paid, and paid with money borrowed by the various company commanders upon the security of the State warrants signed by the Governor and Adj.-Gen. Louck.

The militia from Los Angeles are now asking each other why they are the only ones who have been left out. They say they "need the money."

It was Saturday, April 21, that the Seventh Regiment, N. G. C., was called out for service in and about San Francisco. Twelve companies responded; they were Companies A, C and F of Los Angeles; B, San Diego; D, Pomona; E, Anaheim; G, Redlands; H, Long Beach; I, Pasadena; K, San Bernardino; L, Santa Ana, and M, Riverside.

With the Seventh Regiment went Troop D Cavalry, and the Signal Corps. On April 23 the Naval Reserve from this city was called for service, and were placed on duty in San Francisco.

The Seventh Regiment with a full force of 67 men, Troop D with fifty-four men, and the Signal Corps with thirty-five men, were on duty for twenty-three days. The Naval Reserve, with forty-six men, were on duty for twenty-six days.

Privates are paid by the State $2 a day for such service and the officers at the rate paid to officers of the same grade in the regular army. Consequently, the privates of the Seventh Regiment, Troop D and the Signal Corps are entitled to $46 each, and the members of the Naval Reserve to $32 each.

When the Legislature met in special session at Sacramento the sum of $400,000 was appropriated to pay the expenses of the militia, but this sum is not available until July 1, 1907.

As soon as this appropriation was made, the bankers of San Francisco held a joint meeting and loaned to Adj.-Gen. Louck $100,000, without interest, with which to pay the soldier boys of that city who had been on duty. These members of the National Guard were paid off about ten days ago in San Francisco.

About a month ago Gen. Louck came to Los Angeles and went before a committee of the Clearinghouse to try and arrange for money to pay the militia-men in Southern California. The committee wanted to know what security the general could give, and he answered that he would give them warrants on the State treasury signed by himself and the Governor and payable July 1, 1907, plus 6 per cent.

But for some reason the committee did not take kindly to the request of Gen. Louck, and after some discussion the meeting broke up without anything accomplished.

Recently Gen. Louck recommended that the various company commanders make their own arrangements with their home bankers for the payment of the men in their companies.

This has been done in Long Beach, San Diego, Riverside and San Bernardino, and arrangements are now pending in Redlands and Pasadena. The boys in those towns will get their money just as soon as the warrants come from Sacramento. Fresno paid her militiamen July 14, and practically all of the northern soldier boys have been paid.

Only in this city, it is said, nothing has been done toward paying the men who did such good work when, in the crisis following the great disaster, the State called upon them to leave their families, their work and homes.

The rapid ones claim that it will only take between $15,000 and $16,000 to pay off the militiamen of Los Angeles, including officers, and they believe they are entitled to some consideration at the hands of the powers that be.

They are looking toward Gen. Robert Wankowaki, who is a banker.

lently, wicked world, there's a stocking coming down. It must be a silk stocking. None but a silk stocking could deserve the embrace of such a garter.

Sympathetic express agents and freight men are rushing it around the country. It started in Utah, where garters are many, and traveled to this Coast. Yesterday it was headed back across the continent.

It came into Arcade Depot loaded with the tags the express messengers and freight agents had affixed as they lovingly sent it on its way.

One morning, the little red garter was found lying on the platform at Ogden.

The station agent picked it up and passed over it. In his mind's eye he could see the owner walking cautiously and madly clutching her skirt at the knee from time to time. Hurriedly he rushed into the station and compassionately wrote out the tag starting the little red garter on her travels, heading her at random for Salt Lake.

The man at Salt Lake frivolously wrote on a card: "I need you, mah honey. 'Gee I do,' and sent the little red garter Coastward over the Southern Pacific.

"Goodness knows where she went from there. She tripped out of Winnemo, Nev., with this gay appeal from some desert-lonely young man:
"O-ho! Introduce me!"

"I wonder what these are for?" was the cry one from San Bernardino.

"What will the poor girl do?" sighed Pasadena, primly.

"What, in summer time?" gasped Mojava, intimating that hose is a needless luxury.

"Where is the rest that goes with it?" is the naughty remark signed
"Missus," suggestively signed, too.

"Sassy thing," cheeks demure Santa Barbara.

"Good thing; push it along," said
Reno.

Other remarks were:
"The missing link."
"Oh, you naughty messengers—naughty, naughty."
The one attached at Arcade depot was very practical; it said, "On my way to New Orleans."
And so the little red garter obediently started for New Orleans, laden with forty or fifty labels.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Yesterday the contractors who furnished horses to haul garbage put in a bill for those that have been killed and maimed.

The five days' notice to Stansbury & Powell to renew work on the outfall sewer will expire today.

Six representatives of the Paris Chamber of Commerce may be entertained by the city.

W. F. Montgomery, president of the Montgomery Lumber Company, was granted a divorce yesterday, the testimony showing that his wife had decided to forsake him and their fourteen-year-old son so that she would be free to pursue her ambition to be a musician of note.

J. J. Vosburg, a capitalist, and W. H. O'bear, a real estate dealer, testified in court yesterday relative to O'bear's suit to enforce a contract between them for the transfer of property. Vosburg's cross-complaint charges O'bear with sharp practice.

Attorney W. J. Danford, charged with forgery, was given a hearing yesterday and his fate will be determined by Justice Downing today.

The cases of five waiters charged with violating the Sunday liquor ordinance, was continued by Police Judge Rose to Friday morning.

AT THE CITY HALL.

GARBAGE FIRM PRESENTS BILL.

Next Move in Outfall Sewer Due Today—Official Delegation from Paris Chamber of Commerce En Route to Los Angeles—City Treasury Has the Proper Color.

The city of Los Angeles finds itself in a rather peculiar position, as the result of playing partners in the matter of garbage collection.

McGuire & McGuire have the contract for furnishing the horses and wagons for hauling the garbage but the city furnishes the drivers, and as a result of the partnership the city will either have to pay two bills aggregating almost $900, presented by McGuire & McGuire, or meet a suit for damages. The contractors make a claim of that amount for horses killed and injured and hold the city responsible because the city pays the drivers. The Board of Public Works had a conference with the contractors yesterday, but arrived at no decision in the matter.

OUTFALL CONTRACTORS.

NOTICE WILL EXPIRE TODAY.

The five days' notice given to Stansbury & Powell, defaulting contractors for the outfall sewer, will expire today and City Clerk Leland anticipates receiving a counter-statement from the contractors. They were told that unless they renewed work on the sewer by today, their bond would be forfeited and the city would take steps to complete the work. They have not commenced work and it is therefore fair to assume that some reply will be forthcoming today, though it cannot be presented to Council until next Monday.

PARIS DELEGATION.

ARRANGING RECEPTIONS.

Amoury Marx, editor of the local French paper, was at the City Hall yesterday to arrange an interview between Mayor McAdams and a delegation of representatives of the Chamber of Commerce of Paris.

Mr. Marx, who has been instrumental in bringing a number of his countrymen to Los Angeles, yesterday received a letter from the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of Paris, notifying him that a delegation of six men had been appointed to come to this city and investigate financial and business conditions and make full report to that body. Twenty Frenchmen have already arrived here and are preparing to make heavy investments, as the result of an investigation previously made by a committee of businessmen, and now the Chamber of Commerce takes notice of what is going on and sends its official representative on the same kind of an errand.

Mr. Marx expects the committee to arrive within the next few weeks, at the farthest, and will endeavor to arrange receptions for them through the City Council and the local Chamber of Commerce. He explains that the reason of the French people to take up with southern California is due to two reasons. First, because the climate is specially to their liking, and next because they have vast capital either lying idle or paying not more than 3 per cent. on the investment. He looks for a great influx of money and people from France in the near future.

CAN YET BUY PINS.

MONEY IN CITY VAULTS.

The report of City Treasurer Workman, which was filed with the City Clerk yesterday, shows that the city is still in possession of pin-money for the summer vacation. When the vaults were opened yesterday morning the coin in sight amounted to $1,907,320.65, while the demands paid during July approximated $400,000. Some of the principal items in the report will prove of interest as showing money available for specific purposes in some instances where the general public may have ideas that the funds were entirely exhausted. In the storm-sewer fund there is an available balance of $74,832.29; sewer-bond fund, $234,201.32; water fund, $275,312.50; reservoir fund, $70,659.55; Owens River fund, $25,644.90; park fund, $30,832.07; police department fund, $123,088.56; police pension fund, $137,700.

MAIN STREET WIDENING.

PETITIONERS GET ANXIOUS.

There was a gathering of the South Main Street Improvement Association at the office of the Board of Public Works yesterday, in the interest of the widening of that thoroughfare, south of Jefferson street.

There is no complaint on the part of any of those interested in the improvement, except as to the slowness of the law in bringing it about. Months ago the property owners consented to the laying of the street car tracks of the Montebello line on this narrow part of South Main street, and gave the company the privilege of placing the tracks on what will be the new grade of the street after it is widened, which put the tracks at some places at least two feet above the present grade. In addition to the inconvenience occasioned by this to those who drive on the street, it left only sufficient space on one side of the tracks for a wagon to pass and on the other no room whatever.

The petition has been granted for the widening and the notices were sent out yesterday telling each person in the assessment district how much his will be about forty days until the money is in hand.

In order to hasten the work to completion, they were advised by the Board of Public Works to go ahead and set their curbs back ten feet, the board agreeing to at once remove the old curbs and other obstructions, so that the street would be open to wagons at once. They will meet on Monday night to consider doing this.

CITY HALL BRIEFS.

If any individual was pessimistic concerning the progress of this city after the San Francisco calamity, all such feeling must have disappeared long ago. Building is going on unceasingly for the summer months, and has been for many weeks past, issuing building permits at the rate of between thirty and forty a day.

The new offices on the third floor of the City Hall will soon be in shape and the fortunate officials who capture them will be the envy of all the others. These are by far the finest offices in the building, all brightly lighted, airy and handsomely finished.

Male representatives of four gipsy women, who are familiar sights on the streets of the city in their gaudy attire, were at the City Hall yesterday in favor of "El Hutch," seeking to secure a license to sell their wares. All fortunes, but they were refused. Last year licenses were issued to them, but because of public nuisance and a menace to decency, and the licenses were called in and the money refunded. These women are aggressive at any time, but when in possession of a license from the city they presume upon protection, and it has in many instances been necessary to almost drive them from offices in some of the business blocks.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

SUIT INVOLVES REALTY TANGLE.

CONTRACT TO SELL PROPERTY HAS CLAUSE ERASED.

Defendant Files Cross-Complaint and Accuses Plaintiff of Sharp Practice—Document Contains Option Time Statement and One Man Claims This Was Rubbed Out.

The suit brought by W. H. O'bear, a real estate man, against J. J. Vosburg, a capitalist, and cattle dealer, to enforce the terms of a contract, was heard before Judge Birdwell yesterday. Vosburg, in his cross-complaint, charged O'bear with sharp practice, and alleged that he had been induced to sign the contract by a rather acrimonious bit of litigation.

Vosburg testified that he had agreed to sell the premises for $23,500, free of all incumbrances, subject to a 1906-07. The sum of $10,000 was to be paid down, and the balance in one, two or three years at 5 per cent. interest. Vosburg claimed that he argued to these terms but the option was to continue for only thirty days and not for the extended term specified in the contract. Vosburg alleged that when the time period was objected to, O'bear said that he would scratch it out, and as a matter of fact he did run his pen through a certain part of the contract. Assuming that the wish had been made, Vosburg said that he signed the contract.

The negotiations had been carried on in April and it was August 25 before O'bear demanded the contract, title, and made offer of the $10,000 cash down. In the interim Vosburg had sold the property to F. K. Eckley through the firm of C. C. Keyser Company for exactly the same amount agreed upon with O'bear, and this sale had been carried through on the assumption that the O'bear option had expired long before.

It had not expired, however, according to the contention of O'bear, for the thirty-day limit contained for by Vosburg was not what the contract showed. The controversy ranged around the simple question whether O'bear had really crossed out the provision in the contract which Vosburg had demanded, and which he imagined had been done. On the stand yesterday, he said that at the time he could not find his spectacles and so could not read the contract, after the change had been made, but seeing O'bear crossing out something and having no reason to doubt him, he concluded that he had made a thirty-day option as he had asked.

Mr. and Mrs. Vosburg both testified that it was understood by them that a thirty-day option had been given; and it is on this testimony that the defense trusts to win and have their title quieted to the property. In the meantime the property advanced in value.

After arguments the matter was submitted on briefs to be filed.

ATTORNEY ON TRIAL.

ACCUSED OF FORGERY.

Attorney W. J. Danford yesterday was before Justice Downing in San Pedro, sitting for Justice Pierce, to be examined on the charge of forgery preferred against him by H. T. Cook, now of San Francisco. At first it was anticipated that the case would be dismissed as Cook was not on hand, and a short continuance was granted. During the morning, however, the complaining witness arrived from the north and the examination proceeded.

Cook had charged Danford to bring suit for divorce against his wife, and charges that on October 7, his attorney forged a power of attorney for the sale of a house at 411 South Main street, Danford's residence. It was understood that he was to have $50 for his services in obtaining the divorce and selling the property. It being necessary to the case, Cook quickly so as to prevent the wife from interfering and stopping the sale, and also because Cook wanted to leave at once for Spokane. Mrs. Cook acted promptly, however, and put a home-aid claim on the property, and the power of attorney was null and void.

After matters had gone so far, the husband and wife met together again, and the divorce suit went by the name of Spokane. Mrs. Cook acted promptly, however, and put a home-aid claim on the property, and the power of attorney was null and void.

It was when Danford filed his answer to this suit that the disputed power of attorney was introduced. The civil proceeding was settled, but the criminal prosecution began at that time is now pending.

A handwriting expert testified for the prosecution that the signature of Cook on the power of attorney gave evidence of having been traced from the signature on the deed to the South Main street property. That was the strongest bit of testimony offered for the prosecution. For the defense a clerk in Danford's office swore that

Cook finished appending his signature to the power of attorney. Justice Downing will decide today whether or not he will hold Danford to answer in the Superior Court.

HUSBAND GETS DIVORCE.

WIFE WEDDED TO MUSIC.

W. F. Montgomery, president of the Montgomery Lumber Company, was granted a divorce yesterday on the technical ground of cruelty, but really because of incompatibility of temper between himself and Mrs. Montgomery.

"She is a most excellent woman," said the plaintiff husband, "but impossible as a wife."

"He treated me well, gave me everything I desired, but as a husband—no, I couldn't be. That is what Dr. Morrison told the court Mrs. Montgomery had said to him about her husband."

"This is the strangest case I ever had before me," remarked Judge Giblin. "Here seems to be nothing between these people, and yet the wife is determined not to live with her husband."

IN THE POLICE COURTS.

Violators of Sunday Liquor Law Try to Delay Trials—Holleran's Assault Fined.

Police Judge Rose listened to the arguments for five days yesterday afternoon with violating the Sunday liquor law and yesterday morning continued the hearing until Friday. Every effort is being made to gain time and the cases are likely to drag along for some time.

Chief of Police Austin is authority for the statement that a sandwich or a free lunch does not constitute a meal. Because of the attitude of the police toward the violators of the Sunday law, the defendant is now being made to make a test case and are preparing for a strong fight.

WIFE A VAGRANT.

Mrs. L. C. Ott, whose husband is a motorman, pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy yesterday afternoon in Police Justice Austin's Court. The woman is petite, demure and pretty and is still in her early twenties. As she sat in the courtroom, she tried to avoid the stares of the curious and quickly entered her plea. She will be sentenced Friday morning at 11 o'clock.

The arrest of Mrs. Ott was made by Detective Bert Cowan who found the woman on Spring street late Tuesday night. She is said to have admitted that she is unfaithful to her husband.

FINED FOR HIS FUN.

Convicted of resisting an officer Peter Wiley was sentenced yesterday by Police Justice Austin. Wiley struck Patrolman Holleran in the mouth with a bottle when the officer tried to quell a riot in the Palace Casino. Holleran said several of his teeth. The patrolman admitted having struck Wiley a blow which rendered him unconscious for several hours. Wiley showed that while Wiley was clearly the aggressor the officer had used his fists to stop the fight. Wiley was sentenced to the City Jail for five days.

ATTACHED BY CARPENTERS.

Store of Beck-Wakefield Company in Charge of a Constable Until Wages Are Paid.

The Beck-Wakefield Company of No. 205-207 North Los Angeles street is in trouble. While a committee of creditors is supposed to be sitting on the affairs of the company in San Francisco, a deputy constable is sitting on a box in the store here, as a result of an attachment for $204 issued in behalf of seven carpenters who have been working for the company.

The Los Angeles store is a branch of the San Francisco headquarters. It handles gas engines, marine motors and refrigerators. For some time they sold an eastern make of refrigerators, but lately they have been making wine cases and other big ice boxes themselves. The carpenters were employed in this work.

Somebody gave them a hint that the company was about to bust up, and they asked for their pay. The custom of the company has been to pay on Saturday night, and the clerk in the office refused. Then the carpenters went to an attorney, and drew up an attachment in record time.

All the officers of the company are in San Francisco. Beck has been out of the company for some time and has no control. F. W. Wakefield is president, and H. J. Murray, formerly the Los Angeles manager, is now vice-president. Both of them are in San Francisco, supposed to be attending a meeting which will either wind up the affairs of the concern or put it on another basis.

The precipitate action of the carpenters was caused by a report that the company was moving out all the valuable goods in the store. If that was the case, they would have been there several thousand dollars' worth of unfinished oak wine bins in the shop.

At the office of the company only a clerk was in charge. He said he knew no reason why the men should be alarmed over their pay, and that he would get it to which the clerk said, Saturday. He has notified the head officers of the company and expects their return in a day or two.

Heavy losses in the San Francisco disaster and bad management since Beck's withdrawal are given as the causes of the present condition of affairs.

COMIC SALE AT PASADENA.

THERE WERE WHEELS, AND WHEELS—ALSO WHEELS.

Some Blanks Drawn and Much Fun is Had by People Who Attend Police Station Auction—Stolen Junk, and Other Accumulations, Go to the Highest Bidder.

2206 of The Times, No. 24 S. Raymond Ave.

PASADENA, Aug. 1.—The rummage sale of the police department, held this afternoon at the Police Station, furnished much amusement to the citizens who congregated to bid on the different articles offered. Twenty-seven wheels in various stages of disolution were sold at prices ranging from $1 to $5. Other articles collected by the authorities during the last four years were offered for sale, and all found buyers at some price. Some of the wheels sold were revealed to have reached the point where disintegration from old age was just about to occur. There were wheels without axles, and wheels without tires. All of the wheels had wheels, but there were several that could not be ridden.

The amusement furnished by the sale was worth the money paid out for valuations, articles, and everything the auctioneer called attention to this beautiful wheel now offered at a sacrifice, there was a roar of laughter from the assembled bidders. After the wheels had been disposed of,
a choice collection of old grips and parcels was brought out. The bundles were not opened, and several men took their chances on what they got. One man secured a rather distasteful portmanteau for the sum of $1, which, on being opened, was found to contain a valuable bear-skin rug.
Another man paid $2.50 for a canvas
bag filled with old playing cards.
Some broken clock cases and some decrepit electric batteries.

The different packages were opened by the purchasers in the presence of a committee of the police, and the "blanks" were gazed unmercifully as they took their purchases away.

Much of the junk sold has been in the possession of the police for the last four years.

RUNAWAY ENGINE.

Pedestrians on South Raymond avenue this afternoon were thrown into a panic when engine No. 2 from the Dayton-street engine-house came tearing up the street without a driver.
The horses were running at top speed, and the engine was careening from side to side in the most dangerous manner. Several people had narrow escapes from being run down, but the runaway was given a clear road until Robert Mercer, the cable driver of the street car, rushed out into the street and grasped the loose end of the bit, holding on with all his strength.

The frightened animals did not decrease their speed in the least, and Mercer was dragged along the avenue until he reached the intersection of Main and Colorado streets, where he was held, and when Colorado street was crossed several men hurried to his assistance and the runaway engine stopped. Mercer was then released, and the engine was driven to the depot, where it was being repaired.
Mercer had several narrow escapes from being crushed before the horses were finally brought to a standstill.
The runaway was caused by the loose getting away from the engine-house after an alarm of fire had been sounded. Before the driver had time to jump into his seat, he promptly slid into the seat of the horse car,
and started in pursuit of the runaway.
He was then thrown out of the car,
and he was then brought to a standstill
by a man still he climbed onto the engine and drove to the fire.

The horse was small one in the rear of the engine's boiler shop on East Colorado street. It was extinguished by the chemical engine without difficulty.
The loss was nominal.

FOR NEW BOULEVARD.

A committee of the Board of Trade has busy this afternoon soliciting contributions for the construction of the new boulevard between Los Angeles and Pasadena and the maintenance of the same. The committee has several narrow escapes from being crushed before the horses
were finally brought to a standstill.

SIERRA MADRE STIRRED UP BY RECKLESS HUNTERS.

Several Residents Have Narrow Escapes from Wild Bullets, and One Man Gets Double Scare—Cause of the Trouble Is No. Discovers—One Man to Be Arrested.

2206 of The Times, No. 24 S. Raymond Ave.

SIERRA MADRE, Aug. 1.—This community has been stirred considerably during the past few days by the reckless shooting of various hunters.
As a result of stray bullets which have been making things very unpleasant for the residents of Sierra Madre and Mount Wilson, at least one man is liable to be arrested, and if any one else can be located, who had a hand in creating the scares of the past few days, he also will be over to the strong arm of the law.
Two stray bullets the other day, narrowly escaped putting G. E. Morgan out of commission, while he was at his barn near the center of town. He was working diligently, when suddenly a stray shot whistled over him.
The bullet passed about a foot above his head, and it is needless to say that Morgan did some quick thinking.
While he was still standing there, amazed and dumbfounded, lo! there came from some place where, another bullet, this one passing six inches closer to his head.

With a war whoop, like unto that of a Comanche who mistakes pepper sauce for whiskey, Morgan made a jack-rabbit jump into the distance and disappeared in the tall timbers, crying "king-see," with a cloud of dirt and confusion.

Neighbors ran to his rescue, but when it was found that the bullets had not touched him, he cooled down, and joined in a thorough search for the hunter, or hunters, who had been responsible for his scares. They were not discovered.

Last evening the family of W. H.
Finney was also endangered by a load of bird shot, which struck the veranda railing and window casements. Fortunately, the family was all in the house, excepting one child, which happened to be sheltered by a tree just as the shot struck. A quick search of the community brought to light one Harry Staples. It is probable that he will be arrested.

As a result of these, and similar narrow escapes which local residents have experienced of late, a petition is to be circulated requesting that the Supervisors forbid shooting within the town boundaries.

BAD CHECK MAN ARRESTED AT LONG BEACH.

Use of Coal Oil for Kinding for a
Camp Fire Results in Serious
Burns for Man and Child—Clothing
Abaze and Flames Put Out by Fellow Campers.

LONG BEACH, Aug. 1.—An arrest of a check shaver made here today may prove an important one, the police think.

A well-dressed young man went into Silverwood's branch store this morning and asked Manager Harry Arnold to be shown some clothing. He picked out a suit but ordered some alterations. He left a deposit on the suit and went away. Half an hour later he returned, and the manager
noticed that he needed some ready money,
and he needed another check which was cashed. Both checks were on the First National Bank, Los Angeles,
and bore the signature of H. A.
Staples. His card presented Mr.
Arnold, bore the address of 300
Staples, National Cash Register Co., but
the initials had been blurred out, and
H. A. printed above, due, he said, to a mistake of the printer. Stayer was particularly anxious that he should be ready before leaving his store, and
this aroused Arnold's suspicions.

He telephoned to Los Angeles and was told that the bank named had no account with Staples, and that the young man returned Officer Mc-Millan was waiting for him. At the City Jail the prisoner tore up a letter and threw it into the waste paper
basket where it was rescued by an officer and pasted together. The envelope bore the name of John A. Staples,
Los Angeles attorney, and is addressed to Charles S. Lack, No. 321
West Seventh street. The enclosure
from the same direction, and it was the case of Dyer against himself is set for July 31 and to be on hand.

The prisoner was in town yesterday
but so far about his case. He was made other than that of Silverwood.
Marshal Young went to Los Angeles
this evening to get a complaint from the District Attorney's office, and
so to see if the prisoner is known
or wanted in Los Angeles.

BURNS INJURE TWO.

Rufus Finley, one of a party of campers at Los Angeles, was brought to the Long Beach Hospital at noon
today suffering from burns received
in a heroic effort to save a child from burning to death. It appears that some children were trying to light a fire in a wood stove and not succeeding they called Finley to help, which he did by pouring coal oil on the kindling. It blazed out and set the clothing of one of the children on fire.
Finley succeeded in smothering the flames, but caught himself and his clothing, and rolled upon the ground in agony, until his fellow campers threw
a blanket about him and brought the flames. The victim was placed in a carriage and hurried to Long Beach,
where he was attended here. Though badly burned about the face, hands
and abdomen, the physician thinks he will recover. The child's injuries,
though serious, are not fatal.

SEASHORE NEWS JOTTINGS.

Marshal Young yesterday served papers from James Shackleton, lessor of the building where Wesley Holmes
was raided for illegal liquor selling.
Saturday, upon Holmes ordering him
to vacate in three days, because of violating the terms of his lease in selling liquor.

Dr. W. H. Pettie, charged with violating the liquor ordinance, had his case continued until Thursday
day at 2 p.m. on account of the absence of his attorney.

The Seaside Sanatorium Company
has received its charter. Last night it elected permanent officers: G. F.
Mander, president; G. M. Spicer, vice-president; Dr. H. J. Jackson, secretary; Dr. G. W. Winchell, treasurer.

A well-dressed young man went in-
to Silverwood's branch store this morning and asked Manager Harry Arnold to be shown some clothing. He picked out a suit but ordered some alterations. He left a deposit on the suit and went away. Half an hour
later he returned, and the manager
noticed that he needed some ready money,
and he needed another check which was
cashed. Both checks were on the First National Bank, Los Angeles,
and bore the signature of H. A.
Staples. His card presented Mr.
Arnold, bore the address of 300
Staples, National Cash Register Co., but
the initials had been blurred out, and
H. A. printed above, due, he said, to a mistake of the printer. Stayer was particularly anxious that he should
be ready before leaving his store, and
this aroused Arnold's suspicions.

He telephoned to Los Angeles and
was told that the bank named had
no account with Staples, and that the young man returned Officer Mc-Millan was waiting for him. At the City Jail the prisoner tore up a letter and threw it into the waste paper
basket where it was rescued by an officer
and pasted together. The envelope bore the name of John A. Staples,
Los Angeles attorney, and is addressed to Charles S. Lack, No. 321
West Seventh street. The enclosure
from the same direction, and it was the case of Dyer against himself is set for July 31 and to be on hand.

The prisoner was in town yesterday
but so far about his case. He was made other than that of Silverwood.
Marshal Young went to Los Angeles
this evening to get a complaint from
the District Attorney's office, and
so to see if the prisoner is known
or wanted in Los Angeles.

BURNS INJURE TWO.

Rufus Finley, one of a party of campers at Los Angeles, was brought to the Long Beach Hospital at noon
today suffering from burns received
in a heroic effort to save a child from burning to death. It appears that some children were trying to light a
fire in a wood stove and not succeeding they called Finley to help, which
he did by pouring coal oil on the kindling. It blazed out and set the clothing of one of the children on fire.
Finley succeeded in smothering the
flames, but caught himself and his
clothing, and rolled upon the ground in agony, until his fellow campers threw
a blanket about him and brought the flames. The victim was placed in a carriage and hurried to Long Beach,
where he was attended here. Though
badly burned about the face, hands
and abdomen, the physician thinks he
will recover. The child's injuries,
though serious, are not fatal.

SEASHORE NEWS JOTTINGS.

Marshal Young yesterday served papers from James Shackleton, lessor of
the building where Wesley Holmes
was raided for illegal liquor selling.
Saturday, upon Holmes ordering him
to vacate in three days, because of violating the terms of his lease in selling liquor.

Dr. W. H. Pettie, charged with violating the liquor ordinance, had
his case continued until Thursday
day at 2 p.m. on account of the absence of his attorney.

The Seaside Sanatorium Company
has received its charter. Last night it
elected permanent officers: G. F.
Mander, president; G. M. Spicer, vice-president; Dr. H. J. Jackson, secretary; Dr. G. W. Winchell, treasurer.

SECOND FLOOR.

A PHENOMENAL business yesterday and the great rush is going to keep up all week for we have seldom been in position to offer so many attractive bargains at one time. Remember, that these are the bankrupt stock of this season's goods, but purchased at forced sale and prices netted the bankrupt's estate much less than the actual cost of the merchandise to him. Our reason for getting the bulk of the merchandise so cheap was because the Eastern summer season soon closes, while in California we have at least two months yet to get full selling out of our venture. You certainly can use some of the wash waists and shirt waist suits; also the yardage goods and trimmings are cheap enough to purchase and lay away for use this fall or next spring.

"No Name" Wash Goods Sale

The surplus stock of three big mills, totaling an entire carload, is the biggest merchandising proposition that any Pacific Coast store ever attempted, particularly so when a store like this, with full stocks always, places these goods against others. But California seasons are long and we have six or eight weeks to get rid of this enormous lot, yet prices are less than cost at the mills and the reason is we can not use the maker's name.

30c DRESS BATISTE.
300 pieces of the best brand of American Batiste; 32 inches wide; white and colored grounds in a large range of polka-dot, small check, small figured and floral patterns. The maker insists that other stores sell this material at 20c a yard when his name is used.

35c FLOWERED ORGANDIES 12 1/2c.
A value giving without precedent in Organadies.
The patterns are perfect imitations of the imported goods, the texture nearly as fine and the patterns are in heliotrope, blue, green, pink and yellow flowers.

35c FIGURED GRENADE 10c.
An excellent bargain in the general comment.
Hundreds of sales have been made in the past two days from this lot. They are in white and light colors with charming floral designs; a few pieces in solid colors of pink, blue, tan, yellow and lavender.

35c SWISS RAYE 15c.
The remainder of this extensive line shown Monday and priced at less than cost. Is the first time these goods have ever been seen in Los Angeles, for they are a handsome floral Swiss with a mercerized corded white stripe.

35c PERSIAN ORGANDIES 10c.
Economical buyers will appreciate this remarkable line of Persian Organadies. We have never seen prettier goods at any price. The floral patterns are in delicate shades of pink, lavender, blue and yellow.

12 1/2c 12 1/2c
Yard Yard.

35c COTTON FOULARDS 15c.
The fastest seller of this remarkable sale and in appearance closely resembles the silk foULARDs; are in silver gray checks and small broken plaids with tiny colored figures scattered throughout.

35c WASH CREPE DE CHINE 15c.
An exquisite new fabric so tempting that it is hard to describe its beauty; is very soft;
has a Crepe finish; both white and colored grounds with floral patterns and other designs.

30c VOILE SUITINGS 12 1/2c.
One of the daintiest weaves of the new cotton dress fabrics and are in mixed shades of brown, blue, green and red; figured patterns with a slightly mercerized finish; also a few blue and pink checks.

35c FIGURED DIMITIES 10c.
One of the season's greatest favorites and are extremely hard to get and certainly bargains at the reduced price. The patterns and colorings are very pleasing and our assortment to select from very large.

FOR 35c SCOTCH GINGHAMS.
A selected lot of the very popular, always good Scotch Gingham of a famous maker; are 32 inches wide in plain pink or exobled with small pink checks and embroidered pink and blue patterns.
This is positively a regular 35c fabric priced as a leader for our "No Name" Sale 12c a yard.

35c FRENCH ORGANDIES 15c.
From their floral effect they are classed the fairest flowers of the loom, as the patterns are prettily wrought while the colorings and shadings conform to nature. Choice of pink, blue, helio and yellow on white sheer grounds.

15c PRINTED LAWNS 10c.
One of the strongest lines offered at the sale.
They are standard 15c grades and can not be sold by other stores for less. They are bewildering in their variety of patterns and some of the darkest shades are very beautiful.

12 1/2c STANDARD PERCALES 8 1/2c.

U. S. and probably on sale in every other store in this city at 12 1/2c; are in white, pink
